Instructions

Who must file Form TP-125

If you will import more than 90 but not more than 360 liters of liquors into New York State during a one-year period for your personal use and consumption, you must file Form TP-125 to apply for a temporary license. You must receive your license before importing the liquors.

If you will import 90 liters or fewer, you are not required to apply for a temporary license.

If you will import liquors for sale, or import more than 360 liters during a one-year period for your personal use and consumption, you must register as a distributor of liquors using Form TP-215, Application for Registration as a Distributor of Alcoholic Beverages.

Liquors include:

- distilled or rectified spirits, alcohol, brandy, cordial (wine or liquor base), whiskey, rum, gin;
- all other distilled beverages containing alcohol, including all dilutions and mixtures of one or more of the above; and
- wines exceeding 24% ABV.

When to file this application

Apply for a license within 30 days of when you intend to import the liquors. Do not apply earlier than 30 days.
