Welcome to the New York State Tax Amnesty Web site.
From November 18, 2002 through January 31, 2003-eligible New York State taxpayers had the opportunity to apply for Tax Amnesty and pay their overdue state taxes without penalty charges and at a reduced interest rate. Thousands of individuals and business owners took advantage of the amnesty program to come into compliance and pay their outstanding obligations. Tax Amnesty applicants have until March 15, 2003, or the date specified on their tax amnesty bill (whichever is later) to make full payment.
Although the Tax Amnesty application period has ended, Tax Amnesty applicants may continue to use this Web site to review their account status, make Tax Amnesty payments, download tax forms, compute the amount of interest due with a return under Tax Amnesty (by using the online interest calculator), report an address change to the Department, and obtain information about the Tax Amnesty program through the Answer Center.
If you have questions or need further assistance in completing the payment process, please Contact Us. We are happy to assist you.
The minimum browser versions needed to support our online services are Internet Explorer 5.01 and higher and Netscape 6.2 and higher. If you need a free browser upgrade, please go to the Microsoft or Netscape Web sites.

Eligible tax periods, uses, or transactions:

Back to the Top

Except as noted below, tax liabilities for all tax periods ending, or uses or transactions occurring, prior to January 1, 2001, are included under Tax Amnesty. For example, tax year 2000 is the last personal income tax period that qualifies for Tax Amnesty.

In the case of taxes that require the filing of quarterly returns, or an annual return due on the last day of February (e.g., sales tax), the Tax Amnesty program will apply to tax assessments for tax periods ending or transactions or uses occurring on or before February 28, 2001.

Tax Amnesty also applies to estate tax liabilities of decedents with a date of death on or before February 1, 2000.

Application and payment due dates:

Back to the Top

Mailed applications must be postmarked by January 31, 2003. Online applications must be submitted by midnight eastern time January 31, 2003. Tax Amnesty payments must be made in full by the later of March 15, 2003, or the date specified on the Tax Amnesty bill or amnesty will be denied. You should consider filing and paying as soon as the Tax Amnesty period begins on November 18, 2002, to stop the accrual of interest charges.

Eligibility restrictions:

Back to the Top

Prior Tax Amnesty

A taxpayer who was granted Tax Amnesty under either of the 1994 or 1996-97 New York State Tax Amnesty programs is not eligible for those taxes for which Tax Amnesty was previously granted. For example, if Tax Amnesty had been obtained under either of the 1994 or 1996-97 Tax Amnesty programs for a corporation tax liability, the taxpayer is not eligible under the current program for another corporation tax liability. However, the taxpayer would retain eligibility for other taxes. For example, that taxpayer could apply for Tax Amnesty for withholding tax or sales tax.

Restriction regarding business taxpayers with more than 500 employees

Business taxpayers are not eligible for Tax Amnesty for the following taxes if they have more than 500 employees, or their combined filing group had more than 500 employees, in the United States on the date of the application for Tax Amnesty:

- Designated taxes under Article 9 (corporation tax)
- Franchise tax on business corporations - Article 9-A
- Tax on petroleum businesses - Article 13-A
- Tax on net income of unincorporated businesses - Article 16-A
- Tax on beverage containers - Article 18-A
- Personal income tax - Article 22
- Unincorporated business tax - Article 23
- Sales and compensating use taxes - Article 28
- Taxes authorized for cities, counties, and school districts - Article 29
- New York City personal income tax - Article 30
- City of Yonkers income tax surcharge - Article 30-A
- City of Yonkers earnings tax on nonresidents - Article 30-B
- New York City earnings tax on nonresidents - Article 2-E General City Law

Back to the Top

Civil and criminal actions

A taxpayer is not eligible for Tax Amnesty for a tax and period in which the taxpayer is a party to a criminal investigation or pending criminal or civil litigation related to such tax and period. However, the taxpayer may apply for all other eligible taxes and periods which are not subject to pending civil or criminal litigation or an ongoing criminal investigation. A taxpayer who has been convicted of a crime related to a tax for which Tax Amnesty is sought is not eligible for any period or assessment for that tax.

The taxpayer may withdraw from civil litigation to obtain Tax Amnesty for a disputed assessment. Also, protest cases before the Bureau of Conciliation and Mediation Services or the Division of Tax Appeals must be withdrawn prior to the granting of Tax Amnesty.

If an application is denied due to an ongoing criminal investigation or pending criminal prosecution, the taxpayer may resubmit the application if these criminal actions do not result in conviction. This resubmission must be within 30 days of official notice that the investigation has been terminated or the conclusion of the prosecution. If the taxpayer has not been officially notified of the termination of a criminal investigation, the resubmission must be within five years and thirty days of the mailing of the Tax Amnesty denial notification.

Payment Options

Electronic Payments
- Electronic Funds Withdrawal
- Credit Card

Payments by Mail

Electronic Payments:

You must pay your total amount due under amnesty by the later of midnight eastern time, March 15, 2003, or the date specified on the amnesty bill or the Department will deny your Tax Amnesty application. You can pay electronically by one of two methods: electronic funds withdrawal or credit card. Authorized payments cannot be cancelled. Your payment will be effective on the date you charged it.

Electronic Funds Withdrawal:

If you have a PIN (personal identification number), you can pay online by authorizing an electronic funds withdrawal directly from your savings or checking account. There is no charge for this transaction. You will need to know your bank account number and the routing transit number of your financial institution.

The funds must be available in your account when you submit your electronic funds withdrawal request. Taxpayers can request an electronic funds withdrawal after using their PIN to log in to secure Tax Amnesty Online Services. You should use the PIN provided on the amnesty mailing received from the Department.

Credit Card

You can use your Discover ®, Novus ® or MasterCard ® to pay the amount due under amnesty through a credit card service provider that charges a convenience fee. Personal Income taxpayers may also use Visa ® to make a payment.

The credit card service provider charges a convenience fee to taxpayers to cover the cost of providing this service. The provider has an online convenience fee calculator on its Web site. The amount of the fee is determined by the amount of the payment. You will be informed of the amount of the fee before you confirm the credit card fee. If you accept the transaction, you will receive a confirmation number. Retain this confirmation number as proof of payment. The convenience fee and tax payment will appear as two different charges on your credit card statement.

Please read the Disclaimer before making a credit card payment for the total amount due under amnesty.

Go to the credit card service provider's Web site at Official Payments Corporation.

Payments by Mail:

Your payment for the total amount due under amnesty, along with your return, must be postmarked by March 15, 2003, or the date specified on the amnesty bill or the Department will deny your Tax Amnesty application.

Disclaimer

The New York State Department of Taxation and Finance ("Department") is committed to providing its customers with the highest levels of service.

As a convenience to our customers, the Department is allowing Tax Amnesty applicants to pay the amounts owed under Tax Amnesty by credit card (via a telephone call or over the Internet).

The Department has made arrangements with a credit card service provider who participated in the New York State tax year 2001 income tax credit card program to provide this service.

Those taxpayers who decide to pay their assessments by credit card over the telephone will initiate the transaction through a Department employee, while those who elect to make a credit card payment over the Internet will do so through the Web site of the selected credit card service provider.

For either method of payment, the taxpayer will need to furnish personal identifying information, the credit card number and expiration date, the amount of the payment and payment application information (such as tax type, tax year, assessment or file reference number, etc.). Also, for either method of payment the credit card service provider will charge a convenience fee to taxpayers to cover its cost of providing this service. However, taxpayers will be informed of the amount of the fee before they confirm the credit card payment.

Taxpayers who decide to proceed with the transaction will receive a confirmation number from either the Department employee or credit card service provider as proof of payment. Taxpayers should also note that, following authorization of the credit card payment, the Department will not retain credit card information for telephone transactions. For Internet transactions, the credit card service provider will forward to the Department only that information necessary for the Department to properly credit the payment to the taxpayer's account (i.e., identifying information, payment amount and application information). For telephone transactions, the Department will not retain any personal credit card information, such as credit card number or account status.

The Department is allowing credit cards to be used for paying Tax Amnesty assessments as a convenience to taxpayers. The decision to use or not to use the products or services offered by the credit card service provider is entirely up to the taxpayer and will not result in any special treatment from the Department. Further, neither the Department nor the State of New York:

1) endorse, recommend or require the use of such provider or its products, processes, information or services;
2) make any warranty (express or implied, including the warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose and non-infringement) with respect to such provider or its products, processes, information or services;
3) make any representation with respect to such provider or its products, processes, information or services; nor
4) assume any legal liability or responsibility for any act or omission by such provider, or for the accuracy, completeness, timeliness or usefulness of any product, process, information or service offered by such provider.

The Department and the State of New York do not control any Web site referenced or accessed through links or otherwise from the Department's Web site, and are not responsible for the content, privacy policies, security policies or procedures of such Web sites, or for the content, privacy policies, security policies or procedures of any links contained in such Web sites. Any questions regarding off-site content, privacy policies and/or security procedures should be directed to those responsible for the Web site in question and not to the Department.

Tax Amnesty Application - Income Tax Return

To electronically file and pay your income tax amnesty application-return (IT-201) for tax years 1999 and 2000, complete the following information and click the Continue button. Please review the tax amnesty program requirements before filing. If your Filing Status is Married Filing Joint or Married Filing Separate, both you and your spouse's social security numbers are required. For instructions on a specific field, click the ⓘ icon.

Use a PIN as your electronic signature on your return:

If you do not have a PIN, see Request a PIN. If your filing status is Married Filing Joint, a PIN is required for both you and your spouse.

Can I still file my return electronically if I do not have a PIN?

Yes, but you will be required to file and sign a paper signature document with the Tax Department. Amnesty will not be granted unless the signature document is received by the Tax Department.

Payment Options:

You must pay your total amount due under amnesty by the later of midnight eastern time, March 15, 2003, or the date specified on the amnesty bill, or the Department will deny your tax amnesty application. You can pay by one of two methods, electronic funds withdrawal (direct from your checking/savings account) or by credit card (using a credit card service provider that charges a convenience fee).

Tax Amnesty Electronic Payment Methods

You must pay your total amount due under amnesty by the later of midnight eastern time, March 15, 2003, or the date specified on the amnesty bill or the Department will deny your tax amnesty application. You can pay by one of two methods, Electronic Funds Withdrawal (direct debit from your checking or savings account) or by Credit Card (using a credit card service provider that charges a convenience fee).

Electronic Funds Withdrawal	Credit Card
You can pay online by authorizing an electronic funds withdrawal directly from your savings or checking account by selecting the link at the bottom of this column. There is no charge for this transaction. You need to know your bank account number and the routing transit number of your financial institution. The routing number is the nine digit number at the bottom left corner of your checks. Call your financial institution if you have any questions. Your electronic funds withdrawal information will be used only for the one tax payment you authorize for the total amount due under amnesty for selected assessments. The funds must be available in your account when you submit your electronic funds withdrawal request. You cannot change or cancel your electronic funds withdrawal request after you submit it.	You can use your Discover ®, Novus ® or MasterCard ® to pay the amount due under amnesty through a credit card service provider that charges a convenience fee. Personal income taxpayers may also use Visa ® to make a payment. The credit card service provider charges a convenience fee to taxpayers to cover the cost of providing this service. The provider has an online convenience fee calculator on its Web site. The amount of the fee is determined by the amount of the payment. You will be informed of the amount of the fee before you confirm the credit card payment. If you accept the transaction, you will receive a confirmation number. Retain this confirmation number as proof of payment. The convenience fee and tax payment will appear as two different charges on your credit card statement. You cannot make an electronic non-amnesty assessment payment for a bill issued by the Department.
Your confirmation will be the "Confirmation of Electronic Funds Withdrawal - Tax Amnesty Payment" page that will display after you submit the Electronic Funds Withdrawal form and your bank statement that includes a "NYS Tax Amnesty" line. Electronic Funds Withdrawal form	Authorized payments cannot be cancelled. Your payment will be effective on the date you charged it. Please read the Disclaimer before making a credit card payment for the total amount due under amnesty for selected assessments. Credit card service provider: Official Payments Corp. (See the bottom of this page for step-by-step instructions on what to do when you get to this provider's Web site.)

Read these instructions for using the Official Payments Corp. Web site

1. Point your browser to Official Payments Corp after reading these instructions. (This link will open a new browser window, you can come back here to read these instructions.)
2. Scroll down to the box labeled "Make a Payment - you can begin here"
3. Select choice "State Payments"
4. Click the orange arrow to continue
5. If you see a Pull-Down on the next page to select a state, use it to select New York and click the "Continue" button
6. On the next page, use the Pull-Down to select Payment Type "Amnesty-Eligible Assessment Payment", and click the "Continue" button
7. On the next page, enter the amount of your payment from the previous page: $130.86, and click the "Continue" button.
8. Read the terms and, if you agree with them, click the "Accept" button.
9. Enter your personal information Including your Taxpayer ID number in the fields labeled "Social Security Number", and click the "Continue" button. (Note: if you wish an e-mail confirmation and/or you wish to access your Official Payments Corp. payment history, you will have to provide an e-mail address where indicated.)
10. Confirm and complete the transaction as directed by the Web site, making a note (or printout) of any confirmation numbers for your records
11. When you are finished following these instructions and have completed your credit card transaction in the other browser window, be sure to come back to this page and Log out.

Report of Address Change for Individual Taxpayers
Taxpayer ID:
Taxpayer Name: Address TEST
You may use this service to report an address change or correction for the address at which you reside and/or the address at which you want to receive mail from the Department of Taxation and Finance. You may also correct or change the related phone numbers. Reported changes are not limited to the Tax Amnesty program and will apply to all future mailings from the Department.
You may not use this service to provide your new preparer address and should instead report this information when you file your next personal income tax return.
Follow these simple steps to report a change of address and/or phone number:
1. Provide the updated address/phone information in the appropriate fields.
(Note: For Army Post Office (APO) and Fleet Post Office (FPO) addresses: enter APO or FPO in the City field; one of the following two letters in the U.S. State/Canadian Province field: AE for Armed Forces Europe, Middle East, Africa and Canada; AA for Armed Forces Americas; and AP for Armed Forces Pacific; and select United States in the Country field.)
2. Answer the two questions listed below and press the Submit button.
3. If you want to report different addresses for the place where you reside and your mailing address, you will need to submit individual address changes for each address. After you press the Submit button for an address change, a confirmation page will prompt you to either report additional address changes or return to your My Tax Page. Press the Report Additional Address Changes button and repeat steps 1 and 2.
4. Press the Refresh button and this page will refresh and show the original address.
5. You may return to the My Tax Page by selecting the MY TAX link at the top of the page.
6. For instructions on a specific field, press the icon.
